

Title: Totaljobs.com launches new Oil, Gas and Alternative Energy Sector

Date: 23 June, 2008

Totaljobs.com launched a new Oil, Gas and Alternative Energy sector last week, making it the 32nd industry totaljobs.com caters for.

With over 3,200 live jobs, totaljobs.com is boasting a robust new industry sector with an already competitive level of jobs from some of the UK's largest recruiters in its field.

Totaljobs.com attracts a highly responsive 2 million UK jobseekers who generate over 950,000 online applications, looking for jobs across all industries; including the Oil and Gas sector.

John Salt, totaljobs.com Website Director said: "The growth of totaljobs.com as the UK's biggest recruitment marketplace means we have to continue to develop and expand our offering. It is essential we cater to all our recruiters and jobseekers needs, covering all sectors from across the entire UK.

"Totaljobs.com has responded to a clear industry demand by creating a new Oil and Gas sector that has already attracted over 3,000 jobs".

The Oil, Gas and Alternative Energy is currently carrying jobs from Direct Employers such as E-on, Amec, Atkins, BOC, Balfour Beatty, Centrica, Drilquip, GE and Petrofac as well as some of the largest and most specialist recruitment agencies in this area such as Aberdeen Appointments, Badenoch & Clark, Hays, Infinity Resources, LA Recruitment, Matchtech, Michael Page, PI Recruitment and Source People.

The sector is broken down into the following job titles: Alternative Energy, Crude Oil or Gas Trader, Drilling, Engineering & Maintenance, Environment / Health & Safety, Exploration, Geoscience, Management, Marine/Diving/ROV and Production.
